Headmaster Letter

Dear Archway Family and Friends,

Exordium. Jacquerie. Lobelia. These are just a sample of the words that were that were spelled correctly by our Archway students at Tuesday's school-wide spelling bee.

Over the course of the past several weeks, 1st-6th grade students have been participating in the bee at various levels. First was the classroom spelling bee. The top spellers from each classroom then participated in a grade-wide spelling bee. The grade level champion as well as the two runners up qualified for the school-wide spelling bee. Those that qualified were invited to a Bee Breakfast by Mrs. Sneed, the bee coordinator, in order to get more information about the competition as well as a reward for their hard work.

Then came Tuesday. Ms. Wimsatt provided bee-themed snacks after school for the students, and each student partook in a practice round in an effort to become familiar with being on stage and speaking into the microphone. When asked to spell a word that contained a homonym or near-homonym, the part of speech and definition were provided. Spellers could also ask for the origin of the word or to use the word in a sentence. Not surprisingly, many of the words originated from French and/or Latin (the languages we study at Archway).

Word after word (unguents, balustrades, asseveration) students confidently and clearly spelled. As the afternoon turned to evening, the ding of a bell would signify an incorrect spelling, a brief moment of disappointment after all of the many hours spent studying.

Finally, two scholars remained. Each were given a championship word and had the opportunity to win the bee. Based on the correct spelling of recoup, Zander Luo from sixth grade was pronounced the winner and won the golden laurel wreath. With a valiant effort and so close to a win herself, Lydia Attasseril from sixth grade won the silver laurel wreath. And in third place from third grade, keeping up with his older peers, was Neel Anand, winning the bronze laurel wreath. Both Zander and Lydia will represent Archway North Phoenix at the Great Hearts Bee on January 22. We wish them well and commend all our scholars for their excellent effort.

Truly,

Curtis Fee
ANP Headmaster

Traffic and our Neighbors

As a reminder, please do not use the Calvary North parking lot as a turnaround during drop-off or dismissal. Our use of their lot poses a risk to the safety of their young students. Our neighbors at Calvary North have their own pre-school traffic to manage, so let us demonstrate good citizenship by respecting that process.

2018-2019 Bard Competition

Registration forms and more information are available through your child's teacher or by clicking on the link below. All registration forms are due December 14, 2018.

- Where: Great Hearts North Phoenix Campus
- Who: Anyone in the Community willing to help!
- What/ Why: The rocks around the campus have become an issue for cleanliness and safety. The plan for the future is to replace the rocks with pavers or turf. The sack lunch project is to benefit the Phoenix Rescue Mission which feeds needy families throughout the Phoenix area.

In order to sign up to help, please visit the link below. We will need many volunteers to bring shovels, brooms, wheelbarrows, and a helping hand!
