Argonaut families,
Teacher and Staff Appreciation week at ANP this week filled our hearts and tummies with so much joy. We are so grateful for your kindness and generosity in loving our teachers and staff. As we reflect on this past week and throughout the school year, we could not be more grateful for you and your partnership. Our dedicated teachers at ANP make it possible for us to provide our students with the best classical education through the pursuit of truth, goodness, and beauty. We are excited to announce that next Wednesday, May 10th marks our inaugural Great Hearts Day of Giving!

This is one more vital way that you can give in a tangible way that will support the work that is happening on our campus and in our classrooms.

On May 10th we are asking every family that has not yet made their gift to Community Investment, and or if your family can make an additional gift to help us reach our goal. We are currently 87% of our budgeted goal for this school year. Every donation, no matter the size, will remain here at our academy and will be used to support our students and teachers in the classroom. You can make a one-time gift or set up a recurring gift that will support our great school on going. Thank you for investing in your scholar and our school.
