PSO Welcome

Hello ANP Families!

On behalf of the PSO Board I would like to welcome you to the 2023-2024 school year. If you were here at ANP last year, welcome back! If this is your first year here as an Archway Argonaut, we are so glad you have chosen ANP. We look forward to working with each of you this year and to build a stronger community.

If you are a parent here at ANP then you are automatically a PSO (Parent Service Organization) member and we have ZERO PSO dues! So it's easy to get involved. For several years we have been working on our Get Your 10 In Program and we are excited this year to continue those efforts. All of our PSO committees are run by parents just like you who are getting involved and making things happen here at school. Archway families run everything from our lunch program, yearbook and special events like the Daddy Daughter Dance and helping in the classrooms. So there is a way for everyone to be involved and we NEED your support.

Here are some of the community favorite events:

- Parent Mixers
- Movie Nights
- Mother-Son Kickball, Daddy-Daughter Dances
- Spring Event

We look forward to volunteering alongside you, our teachers and staff and continually cheering on our scholars in their educational journey.

Warm regards,

Julie Church
